

H. Res. 201

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

June 17, 1993.

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2403) making appropriations for the Treasury Department, the United States Postal Service, the Executive Office of the President, and certain Independent Agencies, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1994, and for other purposes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. Points of order against consideration of the bill for failure to comply with clause 7 of rule XXI are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Appropriations. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. Points of order under clause 2 or 6 of rule XXI against provisions in the bill are waived except as follows: beginning with “Provided” on page 17, line 2, through “Code:” on line 5; beginning on page 19, line 22, through page 20, line 16; and beginning on page 62, line 22, through page 63, line 2. Where points of order are waived against only part of a paragraph, a point of order against matter in the balance of the paragraph may be applied only within the balance of the paragraph and not against the entire paragraph. It shall be in order to consider the amendment printed in the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution if offered by a named proponent or a designee. That amendment shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by its proponent and an opponent, and shall not be subject to amendment. All points of order against the amendment printed in the report are waived. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit.

Attest:

Clerk.
